

DIANE HENDRICKSON - INITIATED FEBRUARY 2, 2019

Diane has served as the Chairwoman of Northwest Columbus Christian Women's Club for the 5 years. She is the Executive Administrator and Vice President of God's Hygiene Help Center. She organizes their projects, creates flyers, maintains their website www.godshygiene.wordpress.com and Facebook page.

Diane earned her Bachelors from The Ohio State University in Business Education with a minor in Exceptional Children, Area of Blind and Partially Seeing. She began her teaching career in Pinellas County, Florida where she taught 8 years. When returning home to Ohio, Diane accepted a position with Columbus City Schools at Southeast Career Center.

Then she began work on her Masters Plus in Vocational Business Education. The next year she transferred to Beechcroft High School where she taught Cooperative Office Education for 7 years. Then she taught various business subjects at Linden McKinley High School for 10 years. She applied and was offered a position as a Teacher on Special Assignment Career Development Coordinator serving 50 buildings assisting with resources, Career Days and Career Passports. After 4 years, funding was pulled and Diane returned to Beechcroft teaching Career Connections to 9th graders. Diane served as an educator for 32 years and retired in 2005.

After retirement, she attended Columbus Education Association-Retired (CEA-R) and created their first website and typed their newsletter a few years. Diane has regularly exercised in several group classes and personal training. Currently she attends water aerobics and Silver Sneakers at Graceland.

Diane loves to travel and has visited Alaska, Holy Lands, River Cruise on Danube and Rhine, China, Ireland, Australia, New Zealand and in August will take a river cruise in Russia. She would love to meet other travel buddies.

She lives in the same house in North Columbus her late husband and she bought in 1991. Her Dad, Harley Bratton, of Slemmons Gardens has lived with her since June 2015. Harley is a WWII Navy veteran and has all his memory.
